Launched in 1998, Total Production International (TPI) is the definitive, authoritative publication catering for the global live event production industry.

The internationally distributed magazine primarily covers the application of sound, lighting, video, staging design and new technologies in the creative environment of concert touring, theatre, festivals, live music venues and special events. No matter how big or small the production, we endeavour to cover every aspect at every level throughout the year.

Since the spring of 2004, Mondiale Media Ltd. has administered the day-to-day management of the Production Services Association (PSA). The PSA and its members - the best live event service companies, technicians and designers - work to set, raise and maintain standards within our sector. Total Production International incorporates a regular PSA Action bulletin as part of its monthly contents, as a service to Association members and other interested parties.

Total Production International is published 12 times a year, is available digitally and is backed up by our fortnightly e-newsletter, our dedicated website at www.tpimagazine.com and our social media accounts.
EDITORIAL

PRODUCTION PROFILE
The backbone of TPi's editorial coverage is its live Production Profile reports, which cover every discipline involved in putting on a live event. These features are supported by images from award-winning, globally renowned photographers.

Since its inception, Total Production International has reported on hundreds of productions from around the globe, often exclusively. No other magazine covers more live shows in as much detail.

This approach gives a real world view of how technology and design is being applied in this creative environment, giving the ultimate reference for tour managers, production managers, event coordinators, promoters, engineers, manufacturers, distributors, service companies and end users.

EVENT FOCUS
This opening section hones in on a specific area within a live event - such as rigging, visual elements or sound design - bringing individual touring and live event skills to the forefront.

GEAR HEADS
We focus on a recent product launch, delivering an R&D perspective on where the technology in question fits in the market. Technical trends and innovation are a key part of engaging our readership.

FUTURE INSIGHTS
The latest news and products from the tradeshow floor.

CLOCKING OFF
TPi likes to keep community at the forefront. With this in mind, Clocking Off appears as a personal column written by industry names in which they reveal how and why they're raising money for charitable causes.

IN THE FIELD
In this section we take a look at a new product to the market and how its being used in the field.

PRODUCTION FUTURES
We speak to the next generation of touring and live technology professionals.

MARKET FOCUS
TPi's Market Focus feature hones in on a different topic each month. The trends, innovations, and new product launches of the moment will be detailed by industry experts, be that manufacturers, rental houses, vendors or distributors. The chosen subject matter for each issue is listed in the print deadlines section. All editorial entries are FoC.

FESTIVAL FOCUS
From June – October, TPi attends and reports on more festivals than any other technical production magazine, globally.

DIGITAL DOMAIN
The TPi website - www.tpimagazine.com - features a digital edition of the magazine, extra content and serves as an up-to-the-minute news portal. Video stories and interviews add another dimension to TPi media. We also have a free app for all smart devices. Our Facebook, Twitter and Instagram pages also offer the industry a forum for debate, community and news sharing.

READERSHIP & ADVERTISING
The combination of our international circulation and acclaimed editorial coverage has resulted in an unparalleled relevant readership. Research has confirmed that Production Profiles are highly regarded amongst our readers.

Research also shows that on average, each copy of Total Production International is read by three people, creating a pass on readership figure of over 24,000. Add this to the fact that 72% of readers surveyed always read their copy of Total Production International and 81% say they respond to advertising, and you're presented with the perfect, live-specific advertising platform for your products.

EVENTS
Mondiale Media’s extensive events portfolio relevant to our readership include the TPi Awards, Daytime TPi, Production Futures and the TPi Breakthrough Talent Awards.
TPMEA is the sister title to the long-established TPi Magazine. Published 6 times a year to reflect the MEA event season, TPMEA covers the creative and technical aspects of the event market in the region, including live performances, corporate and national celebrations, awards ceremonies and festivals.

In the space of 4 years TPMEA has exhibited exponential growth, now standing as the market-leading publication in the region for live event technology. The standalone magazine is distributed throughout the MEA, as well as benefitting from global distribution alongside TPi every other month.

TPMEA’s in-depth Tech Profiles provide insight on live events from production staff, suppliers and industry insiders. TPMEA also runs regional round-ups, exclusive interviews and company profiles to give a full picture of the ever-developing MEA production industry, with each issue being introduced by a key industry player and a bi-monthly column from International Live Events Association (Middle East) board members.

Backing up the magazine is be our dedicated website www.tpmeamagazine.com, which features regularly updated, dynamic content and a monthly e-shot containing news, video and views on the industry.

In May 2018, TPMEA followed the example of its 20-year-old sibling with the launch of a region-specific awards ceremony to recognise the achievements of exceptional industry individuals. The awards were a huge success and the 2020 event will take place on April 21.
